Plans for summer 4-H sewing classes are underway. Adult and teen leaders are needed to assist with 4-H clothing classes. These classes will be taught in various areas of the county -- Pamplin Elementary, Appomattox Middle and Oakville Schools. If you are willing to give four or five days to this 4-H activity this summer, plan to attend the Clothing Leaders' Meeting in your community. The dates, places and times are as follows: June 10, Pamplin Elementary, 1 p.m. to 2 p.m.; Appomattox, June 10, Extension Office, 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.; and June 24, Oakville School, 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. During each meeting it will be determined when the classes will meet in that community. Watch the newspaper for further details of the clothing classes.

There continues to be a real need for new community 4-H clubs and adult volunteer leaders to work with the groups. A community 4-H club can provide many additional opportunities for young people. Call us if you're interested in a community club as a member or as a leader.
